April 2005

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

On behalf of the South Dakota Department of Social Services, Division of Adult Services and Aging, I am pleased to present the South Dakota Resource Directory for the Elderly. This publication contains a listing of local resources for older adults and caregivers.

Recognized as the State Unit on Aging for South Dakota, the mission of the Division of Adult Services and Aging is to provide opportunities which enable older South Dakotans to live independent, meaningful and dignified lives while maintaining close family and community ties.

This publication has been developed to assist older adults and their caregivers in locating resources for such needs as adult day care, in-home services, emergency contacts and transportation.

I would like to thank our local Adult Services and Aging social workers who collected the information that is contained in this resource directory.

We hope that you find the directory useful and informative.

Sincerely,

Gail Ferris
ASA Division Director

South Dakota Division of Adult Services and Aging

ASA Mission

The Division of Adult Services and Aging's (ASA) mission is to foster and promote community-based and in-home services so that elderly South Dakotans can avoid premature or inappropriate institutional care.

Older Americans Act

One of the primary mechanisms for organizing, coordinating and providing community-based services to older Americans is through the Older Americans Act. The Act was authorized in 1965 to meet the diverse needs of a growing number of elderly individuals. It established the Administration on Aging (AoA) as the federal focal point and advocacy agency for the country's older citizens. AoA administers most Older Americans Act programs at the national level, provides technical assistance and support to the national aging network, and awards funds for supportive home and community-based services to State Units on Aging. Funds are intended to foster a comprehensive system of service delivery that meets local demands for elderly-related services including services for caregivers.

State Unit on Aging

The South Dakota Department of Social Services, Division of Adult Services and Aging, is the State Unit on Aging and is responsible for administering Older Americans Act programs at the state level. As the State Unit on Aging, ASA is responsible for serving as an advocate for older citizens, allocating state and federal funds, monitoring the development and implementation of service systems and providing technical assistance to agencies, organizations and individuals that are interested in the needs of elderly persons.

Adult Services and Aging Local Offices

South Dakota is divided into 4 districts, which includes twenty-four local offices. Located in the local offices are 4 district supervisors, 1 field program specialist, 6 supervisors, 67 social workers and 5 medical review team nurses.

Service Providers

Service providers contracted by Adult Services and Aging to provide needed services include nutrition providers, adult day care providers, transportation providers, and legal services agencies, home health agencies, homemaker providers, etc.

State Advisory Council on Aging

The Older Americans Act requires the Division of Adult Services and Aging to have an Advisory Council on Aging. Members of the SD Advisory Council on Aging are appointed by the Governor. The 12 members who serve on this council are from across the state. A majority of the membership consists of actual or potential consumers of services through the Older Americans Act.

The Advisory Council on Aging:

- Advises ASA staff on concerns relating to the needs of older South Dakotans.
- Initiates and supports cooperation among state agencies and departments to improve services to older South Dakotans.
- Reviews and evaluates programs and services and makes recommendations to the Governor or appropriate administrators for improving or integrating such activities to be more beneficial to older South Dakotans.
- Reviews and makes recommendations on applications for grants to be funded through ASA.
- And other duties as necessary to ensure representation of older South Dakotans in legislative, administrative and social concerns that would improve their status.

Members of the South Dakota Advisory Council on Aging are: (as of 1-31-05)

ASA Programs

Through various programs, Adult Services and Aging provides or purchases services for disabled adults and older persons. ASA provides leadership in identifying service delivery methods, and field staff located across the state directly provide assessment and case management services to evaluate the needs of the individual. Based on the assessment, appropriate services are authorized and an Individual Care Plan is developed with the needs of the client specifically identified. Social workers may also work with community groups and organizations to identify needs of South Dakota's elderly.

Caregiver Support

Adult Services and Aging offers services that can help caregivers deal with the daily burden of caring for an elderly person. These services can help caregivers avoid burnout by giving them the relief they need to work or pursue other daytime activities.

South Dakota Caregiver Program provides services to caregivers who are providing assistance to someone over the age of 60. A caregiver is an adult family member, or another individual, who is an informal, unpaid provider. This does not include caregivers for someone in a nursing home or assisted living. Services include:

Information and Referral is one-on-one service for older individuals that:

- provides the individuals with current information on opportunities and services available to the individuals within their communities; and
- links the individuals to the opportunities and services that are available.

Case Management is assistance either in the form of access or care coordination. Activities of case management include assessing needs, developing care plans, authorizing services, arranging services, coordinating the provision of services among providers, follow-up and reassessment, as required.

Caregiver Relief is temporary support to provide a brief period of relief or rest to the caregiver on an intermittent, occasional or emergency basis. The caregiver has the responsibility for identifying and selecting a provider.

Training is advice, guidance and instruction to caregivers to assist in making decisions and solving problems relating to their caregiving roles. Training can include instructions on how to correctly perform lifting and transferring, dealing with behaviors of the person they are caring for, and training on how to work with family conflict. Other options could include training provided by an OT, PT, speech therapist, nurse or dietician.

Supplemental Services are services which support the needs of caregivers.

Supplemental Services for caregivers includes products and services which assist the caregiver in providing care and ease the burden of providing this care. This is based on each individual's need and situation. Examples include:

- Home evaluations to identify assistive devices which could benefit the caregiver;
- Chore services;
- Transportation when there is no formal transportation provider;

- Professional Assessments by OT/PT/dietician/nursing, etc. (Not training)
- Meals (through a nutrition site or local café, nursing home, hospital, school, etc;)
- OT, PT, speech therapy, nursing and dietitian evaluations;
- Assistive devices; and
- Other identified needs.

Adult Day Care helps adults remain living in their own homes for as long as possible. Through activities and services, Adult Day Care provides regular care and supervision outside of the home for part of a day. This enables the primary caregiver to work or pursue other daytime activities as well as providing a needed respite for the caregiver.

Respite Care provides temporary relief to the primary caregiver from the continuous support and care of an elderly or dependent individual. This relief helps prevent individual and family breakdown, institutionalization or abuse by the primary caregiver. Respite Care is not meant to replace other specialized services.

The primary caregiver has the responsibility to identify and select the Respite Care provider. This person may be a neighbor, friend, family acquaintance or community resource person that has agreed to provide the care. Respite Care services may be provided in the client's home, respite care provider's home or in another type of community setting, such as Adult Day Care, with prior approval.

Home Safety

Accessible, safe homes make it possible for older persons to remain living in their own homes or return home following rehabilitation or a nursing facility stay. Assistive devices and home modifications can provide a safe and secure home environment.

ASA Assistive Technology Program was created in recognition of the need for assistive devices by the frail elderly population served through our office. Through the availability and use of assistive devices, we can prevent or delay individuals from institutionalization in addition to providing a more safe and secure home environment.

Chore Maintenance Contracts have been awarded to the Pierre and Huron Area Retired and Senior Volunteer Programs (RSVP). Through these contracts, Chore Maintenance Services are provided to South Dakota's frail elderly. Aberdeen, Mitchell, Sioux Falls, Rapid City, Spearfish/Sturgis, and Webster/Watertown RSVP programs also provide Chore Maintenance services on a limited basis.

RSVP volunteers complete a Home Safety Checklist at the home or apartment of the eligible individual. This checklist is used to identify needed repairs as well as safety issues such as poor lighting, trailing wires, etc. The need for lawn care and snow removal is also reviewed. Those things which are identified as a need will be discussed with the individual and a plan developed to make the home safe. Ongoing services could include changing light bulbs, checking the batteries in smoke detectors, shoveling snow, etc.

Information and Referral

Many older Americans seek advice from informal sources -- family, friends, clergy and doctors. Today, older Americans and their caregivers face a complicated array of choices and decisions about health care, pensions, insurance, housing, financial management and long-term care. Depending on circumstances and needs, the assistance and support consumers require can be as simple as factual information and materials or as involved as advocacy and intervention.

Adult Services and Aging social workers can provide information to link families with local community service providers or refer them to the appropriate agency that can help.

Case Management

As individuals grow older, their needs and lifestyles change. Environmental, social and medical services may need to be altered. Case Management can help identify resources before a crisis occurs. Case Management can help an individual locate the most appropriate resources and services.

The Division of Adult Services and Aging provides an array of services to assist elderly persons in preventing or delaying premature or inappropriate institutionalization. The social worker will discuss different eligibility requirements and procedures for the programs available. In addition, there are many other agencies and organizations that have programs and services that can be accessed.

In-Home Services

In-Home Services are available to elderly and disabled adults who need assistance with routine household tasks. Recipients of these services may be recovering from an illness or have physical limitations.

Homemaker Services make it possible for older persons to live in their own homes or to return to their homes by providing assistance in completing tasks they are unable to manage alone. This program is not designed to replace the assistance that is provided by family and friends. A homemaker is assigned to provide basic household assistance. This may include housekeeping, laundry and assistance with personal hygiene.

Personal Care Services are available to Medicaid-eligible people who have a medical-related need for assistance with bathing, grooming, dressing and other tasks. This service is physician-ordered and may include a nurse visit if the medical condition requires monitoring.

Long-Term Care

When elderly people can no longer live in their own homes, there are a number of options available to address their needs.

Adult Foster Care Homes provide room, board and general supervision of personal care services in a family home. Adult Foster Care can meet the needs of adults who require periodic or regular assistance with activities of daily living, but do not require nursing services. Examples of "daily living" include dressing, bathing, eating, brushing teeth, combing hair, etc. Adult Foster Care homes may serve both private pay individuals and state pay clients. The Department of Social Services is responsible for case management services to clients age 60 and over and receiving state payment. If the client is under the age of 60, the Department of Human Services, Division of Developmental Disabilities is responsible for payment and case management.

Assisted Living Centers vary in size, style and the optional services they may offer. Small family style living or the larger complex of units can be found in the state. Some facilities are operated by non-profit organizations while others are proprietary. In addition, some facilities may be co-located and/or affiliated with a hospital or nursing facility. Under administrative rules adopted in 1995, Assisted Living Centers may accept certain restricted admissions if they meet additional licensing requirements.

In South Dakota, the Department of Health is responsible for the licensure and inspection of Assisted Living Centers. The Administrative Rules of South Dakota, Article 44:04, Medical Facilities, specifies the requirements for staffing, operating and resident care.

Medications

For most people, medicines are an important part of their health care. Increasing prescription choices raise many questions. Consumers must have adequate and pertinent information in order to make informed decisions about their medications.

Rx Access helps people access patient assistant programs which supply prescription medications at low or no cost. In addition, a pharmacist will review all medications a person is taking and may consult with a person's doctor if necessary. The pharmacist will look for:

- Drug interactions.
- High or low doses.
- Illness or side effects caused by medications.
- Less costly alternatives.

A person may be eligible for Rx Access if he or she meets the following requirements.

- You have no prescription drug coverage through private insurance.
- You do not qualify for any state assistance programs for prescription drugs.
- You have a low income. ($18,000 for a single person or $24,000 for a couple).

For information visit our web site at: www.state.sd.us/social/asa or to apply, call toll free 1-866-854-5465 and an application will be sent to you.

Legal Services

Older people sometimes need legal assistance. For those who cannot afford to pay privately for this assistance, the Older Americans Act requires states to provide legal services specifically to older persons with the greatest economic and social need. Legal Services are provided through legal corporations to assist individuals 60 and older with legal questions. Eligible persons can receive help with wills, landlord disputes, rights to public benefits and other legal issues. Legal Services staff, an attorney or a paralegal, can provide legal advice, negotiate settlements, prepare appeals and represent clients during court proceedings or hearings.

Transportation

Transportation is provided in buses or vans, some equipped with wheelchair lifts. Volunteers using their own cars may provide other services. Funds may be awarded to senior centers and other community organizations to provide transportation for elderly people. Transportation is also available to Medicaid-eligible individuals for medical appointments to the nearest health care provider. The Division of Adult Services and Aging does not directly provide transportation services, but awards grants through the Older Americans Act to transit providers.

Nutrition

Congregate meal sites serve nutritionally balanced noon meals in senior centers, housing projects, schools and community buildings. Home delivered meals may be available to individuals who are confined to their home. Volunteers in many communities deliver meals.

Senior Meals Offer:

- Hot, nutritious meals.
- Affordable, delicious meals offering a variety of food.
- An opportunity to meet others in a group dining atmosphere.
- Social contact for those who are homebound.
- An opportunity to help others by assisting with the program.

Senior Health Information and Insurance Education (SHIINE)

Senior Health Information and Insurance Education (SHIINE) ensures that health care consumers have a competent, committed and compassionate consumer-focused network of staff and volunteers. These volunteers and staff provide accurate and objective information through innovative community programs at the state and local level.

The South Dakota SHIINE program has recruited and trained volunteer counselors across South Dakota to assist senior citizens who have problems or questions with Medicare or private Medicare supplemental insurance. This program is free to the citizens of South Dakota. To receive help, individuals may contact SHIINE at 1-800-536-8197.

Adult Protection

Adult Protective Services provides assistance to adults who are at risk of abuse, neglect or exploitation and are unable to protect their own interests. Referrals for a person in need of a power of attorney, guardianship or a representative payee are also examples of Protective Services. Adult Services and Aging Social Workers are the Adult Protective Service Workers for South Dakota.

The Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program receives, investigates and resolves complaints that are made by, or on behalf of, older individuals who are residents of nursing facilities, assisted living centers and residential living centers. The Ombudsman is an advocate for the resident and provides information or assistance regarding concerns or complaints about the health, safety, welfare and rights of residents.

Adult Services and Aging Social Workers (Ombudsman) serve nursing facilities and assisted living residents, statewide, by investigating and working toward the resolution of their complaints. The program also provides information and referral assistance, conducts educational activities to increase community awareness of elder rights, and provides training to long-term care and assisted living staff. All reports and inquiries are confidential.

Victims Assistance

Crime Victims' Compensation was created to provide monetary assistance to victims of violent crimes. Up to $15,000 may be paid for certain expenses incurred as a direct result of personal injury to or death of the victim from a crime committed after July 1, 1999. (Prior to 7-1-99, up to $10,000 may be paid.) The expenses may include medical, mental health counseling, funeral and burial, loss of earnings or support, replacement costs for personal property used as evidence, and other similar expenses.

Compensation cannot be paid for other property losses, attorney's fees or pain and suffering. In most cases, payments can only be made if there is no other source of payment including private health insurance for the victim, other public programs, etc.

For more information contact the Crime Victims' Compensation Program at (605) 773-6317 or (800) 696-9476.

The Domestic Abuse Program provides funding for shelters for abused women and children. Shelter programs offer a wide range of services, including those that help older battered women. Services that are available to victims of domestic abuse and/or sexual assault include: a 24-hour crisis line, transportation, immediate safe shelter, food, clothing, counseling and information and referral to other services the victim may need. The phone number for the South Dakota Domestic Abuse Hotline is (800) 430-SAFE.

South Dakota Interagency Coalition on Aging

The South Dakota Interagency Coalition on Aging is comprised of representatives of state, federal and nonprofit agencies in South Dakota. The coalition discusses what is happening in respective program areas and provides an avenue for communication and coordination to better serve South Dakota's elderly population and their caregivers. The coalition meets three times a year and provides agencies a unique opportunity to coordinate with programs they would otherwise not work with through normal activities. Members include:

Corporation for National and Community Service

Getting things done in South Dakota. More than 6,000 people of all ages and backgrounds are helping to solve problems and strengthen communities through 26 national service projects across South Dakota. Serving through local nonprofits, schools, religious organizations and other groups, these citizens tutor and mentor children, coordinate after-school programs, build homes, organize neighborhood watch groups, recruit volunteers, and accomplish other things to improve communities.

AmeriCorps: AmeriCorps, the domestic Peace Corps, will provide individuals the opportunity to spend a year serving in South Dakota communities. In return, AmeriCorps members receive an education award of up to $4,725 to help pay for college or pay back student loans. AmeriCorps members serve in AmeriCorps*VISTA, AmeriCorps*STATE, and AmeriCorps*NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps).

National Senior Service Corps: More than 4,400 seniors in South Dakota contribute their time and talents in one of three programs; Foster Grandparents, who serve one-on-one with more than 1,700 young people who have special needs; Senior Companions, who help more than 700 other seniors live independently in their homes; and Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) volunteers, who work with more than 800 local groups to meet a wide range of community needs.

Cooperative Extension Service

The goal of the Cooperative Extension Service is to serve the people of South Dakota through an educational process that helps them improve their lives by applying unbiased, scientific knowledge focused on issues and needs is the mission of the Cooperative Extension Service. The land-grant mandate that empowers Extension to offer educational information, programs, and services in response to grassroot needs is made possible by the continuing partnership of county, state and federal governments.

Extension educators in every South Dakota county are your local source for unbiased, research-based knowledge. They'll help you find answers to your questions and suggest how best to apply that information to your situation. Extension educators and specialists focus their efforts in the areas of emphasis and respond to the needs identified by South Dakota citizens.

DakotaLink

DakotaLink is an assistive technology project funded by a grant from the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research (NIDRR), U.S. Department of Education. The grant is administered by the SD Department of Human Services, through the Division of Rehabilitation Services, under a contract with the Black Hills Special Services Cooperative.

The DakotaLink project is directed toward systems change and advocacy which will result in a comprehensive, consumer responsive system of technology-related assistance for individuals with disabilities of all ages. DakotaLink seeks to identify and design strategies that eliminate or overcome barriers to individuals with disabilities accessing assistive technology in a timely manner. Consumers, parents, guardians and professionals are sought to be partners in the barrier reduction process.

DakotaLink also works closely with state agencies and disability organizations to overcome barriers and provide training for consumers and professionals. Demo centers, training activities and a mobile trailer bring assistive technology information, training and hands-on opportunities to the most remote areas of the state. This same method brings services to the Native American population on nine reservations throughout South Dakota.

Health Facilities Licensure and Certification

Under contract with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (formerly known as the Health Care Financing Administration), this office assures:

Facilities comply with construction and fire and life safety standards. Engineers and environmental sanitarians review blue prints and drawings for new construction and renovation projects and make on-site visits during and after construction to ensure compliance. The department must approve use of space within a licensed or certified health care facility before it can be occupied and utilized.

Facilities comply with regulations for level of service provided and overall operations for licensure and Medicare and Medicaid certification. Department surveyors (which include nurses, dietitians, pharmacists, laboratorians, X-ray technicians, and environmental sanitarians) review policies and procedures, staffing patterns and employee qualifications, orientation and in-service education, and standards of practice. They also review patient and personnel records, observe actual practice, and interview patients and staff.

Department of Labor

South Dakota's Career Learning Centers work closely with Job Service and the Department of Labor to provide education and training services that meet the needs of local employers.

The centers enroll students from a wide range of backgrounds including those who are economically disadvantaged, welfare recipients, high school dropouts, dislocated workers and older workers. The curriculum in a career learning center is individualized, self-paced and open entry/exit. Career specialists determine the individual client's interests, aptitudes, abilities and motivation. Then an employability plan is prepared to address that student's education and job training needs. Students not only learn how to look for a job, they also learn job retention skills so they know what employers expect.

Career center staff also offer advice to clients on such topics as budgeting, alcohol and drug abuse, personal hygiene and self-esteem. Participants who complete career center programs are ready to enter the workforce as highly motivated and productive employees.

In addition to courses supported through the Job Training Partnership Act, most CLCs also offer services for which they charge. These may include writing resumes, offering computer training courses, providing customer training services, or providing some type of training for businesses.

Department of Social Services

Community Assistance

Community Action Agencies provide services to low-income South Dakotans who are within 125 percent of federal poverty guidelines. Services vary by agency and may include weatherization, gardening, emergency services, etc. Four Community Action Agencies are located throughout the state: Rapid City, Sisseton, Madison and Lake Andes.

Energy Assistance

Energy Assistance helps low-income South Dakotans pay for home heating costs and home improvements that help conserve energy. The program has two parts: Low Income Energy Assistance and Weatherization Assistance.

The Low Income Energy Assistance Program helps pay a family's heating costs by making payments directly to the energy supplier. It can also pay for emergency heating system repairs. The program is designed to supplement payments made by families who would otherwise be unable to pay the full cost of their home heating.

The Weatherization Assistance Program helps low-income people pay for home insulation and other energy-saving improvements that will lower their heating bills. Local community agencies hire their own crews or contract with small businesses to perform the work and purchase materials from local vendors and manufacturers.

Sales Tax on Food Refund Program

The South Dakota Sales Tax on Food Refund Program helps low-income South Dakotans stretch their food dollars. The program provides refunds of sales tax payments on food to South Dakota residents who need the refunds most. A national food plan is used to determine the monthly cost of food a family needs to purchase for a healthy, nutritious diet. Amounts vary based on household size.

Department of Transportation

Office of Public Transit

Rural Public Transit: Federal Transit Administration (FTA) Section 5311 Program authorizes capital, administrative, operating assistance and training grants to state agencies, local governments, Indian tribes, and nonprofit organizations providing rural public transportation services. All projects must benefit residents in non-urbanized areas (under 50,000 population) of South Dakota. Section 5311 provides up to 80 percent federal share of the costs for administrative expenses, up to 80 percent for capital costs and up to 50 percent of the net operating deficit for rural transit operations.

Coordinated community transit systems serving both the rural public and human service agencies are preferred applicants for Section 5311 grants.

Eligible Subgrantees

- State Agencies
- Local Governments
- Indian Tribes
- Operators of Public Transportation Services
- Private Nonprofit Corporations

Specialized Transportation: Federal Transit Administration (FTA) Section 5310 Program authorizes capital grants to private nonprofit organizations to assist in providing transportation for the elderly and/or persons with disabilities. Provides up to 80 percent of all costs for equipment, with the 20 percent match coming from other than federal funds.

Coordinated community transit systems can obtain these vehicles to serve a wide range of agencies serving elderly and/or disabled clients.

Eligible Subgrantees

- Nonprofit corporations serving elderly and persons with disabilities.
- Public bodies approved by SDDOT to coordinate transportation services for elderly and persons with disabilities.
- Public bodies which certify to the Governor that no nonprofit organizations are readily available to provide transportation services for elderly and persons with disabilities.

Easter Seals

Easter Seals provides services to help children and adults with disabilities and/or special needs as well as support to their families. Easter Seals is committed to caring for children and adults with physical and mental disabilities and special needs resulting from any cause, whether diagnosed at birth or incurred through disease, accidental injury or aging.

Easter Seals Recycle For Life Program

To address the problems of unused or underutilized durable medical equipment and people without funding for these items, Easter Seals, with the assistance of many partners and volunteers statewide, has developed the Easter Seals Recycle For Life program. The program searches the state for good, quality medical equipment and assistive technology, refurbishes it and redistributes it to South Dakotans with disabilities.

Caregivers' Conference

Each spring a caregivers' conference is held to educate personal and professional caregivers, care receivers, and other interested parties about resources available for people with disabilities. This two-day conference addresses special needs of people with disabilities, resources, provides information, and assists in building a network of support for the caregivers. Scholarships are available on a limited basis. Nationally-known speakers are recruited to provide state-of-the-art information. Respite care is available for the person receiving care when needed. To register or to receive more information about this conference, please contact Easter Seals.

Experience Works, Inc.

Senior Community Service Employment Program participants must be 55 years of age or older and meet federal income guidelines. Participants are assigned to local nonprofit or public agencies -- host agencies -- for an average of 20 hours per week and paid at the prevailing minimum wage.

While receiving training or updating their existing skills, participants provide valuable services to their local communities. You might find an Experience Works worker reading to children at the library, running the local blood bank, assisting teachers and students in elementary schools, operating recycling centers, staffing emergency hotlines, cooking meals at senior centers, clerking at Veterans Affairs offices and giving tours in local museums. They tutor students, teach skilled trades and crafts, provide home health and day care, prepare and deliver meals for homebound people, care for the disabled, operate computers, and work as clerks, mechanics, and manual laborers, and yes, still build parks and work on beautification projects.

Experience Works participants find fulfillment from community service assignments by helping others and contributing to their communities. They often enjoy improved attitudes and health, and as a result, maintain their independence and dignity.

South Dakota Foundation for Medical Care

SDFMC is the physician Quality Improvement Organization (QIO) authorized by Medicare to ensure that Medicare beneficiaries receive the highest quality health care. Communication with Medicare beneficiaries is an important part of the Foundation's work. This is accomplished in part through beneficiary outreach activities. This agency conducts educational programs and distributes printed material throughout the state concerning: informing consumers of their Medicare rights and responsibilities, explaining the Foundation's role of assuring quality health care, and promoting preventative health care services. For more information call: 1-800-medicare.

South Dakota Housing Development Authority

The South Dakota Housing Development Authority (SDHDA) was created by the State Legislature in 1973 with a stated mission to provide decent, safe, and affordable housing to South Dakotans. The sale of tax exempt bonds by SDHDA provides financing for single family homes and multifamily developments. Although SDHDA is most widely known for its homeownership assistance to First-time Homebuyers, it also finances down payment and closing costs, home repairs, rental housing development, and more. SDHDA also provides technical assistance to private housing sponsors and participates in public and private partnerships to coordinate federal, state, regional, and local housing efforts. SDHDA is a self-supporting, nonprofit entity which uses no state tax dollars.

South Dakota USDA Rural Development State Office

The overall mission of USDA Rural Development is to improve the quality of life of rural South Dakotans. To accomplish this, the agency has the responsibility of coordinating specific federal assistance programs in rural areas of South Dakota. SD USDA works closely with profit and non-profit sectors, state, tribal and local governments.

USDA provides direct loans and grants to credit worthy residents who would otherwise be unable to obtain financing for a family home. Guaranteed loans are made by commercial lenders for single family housing. Direct and guaranteed loans are made to provide multi-family housing or apartments for low-income rural residents. The Community Facility Program provides loans, grants and loan guarantees to fund a variety of public improvements, such as centers for healthcare, day care, public safety, and other public facility projects.

The state office in Huron administers USDA Rural Development programs from nine area offices and one sub-office across the state. Each office is committed to serving those in search of information and assistance with Rural Development's programs and initiatives.

State Library Braille and Talking Books

The mission of the State Library is to provide equal access to print materials in a format acceptable to all citizens of South Dakota who cannot read standard print. The inability to read standard print may be caused by a visual impairment that prevents seeing the print, a physical disability that prevents holding the materials and/or turning the pages, or a learning disability caused by an organic dysfunction. The alternative formats include large print, Braille, cassette recording or electronic files.

Playback equipment and accessories have been designed for easy operation by disabled readers. All playback equipment is loaned to you free of charge for as long as you are actively borrowing books. The State Library allows each reader one cassette player and/or one record player. In order to play talking book cassettes and records, you will need special playback equipment. This is because the talking book cassettes and records are not recorded the same way that commercial cassettes and records are recorded.

Individuals who cannot read or use conventional printed materials as a result of physical limitations, i.e. blind, visually limited, physically limited, and reading/learning disabled are by law eligible. This also includes persons in private homes, nursing homes, hospitals, schools and other institutions.

DSS Nondiscrimination Policy:

It is the policy of the Department of Social Services (DSS) to make sure that applications for program benefits and services are made available to everyone and that program benefits are granted to all who meet eligibility standards. DSS staff, programs and policies must not discriminate against clients or applicants for services because of race, color, sex, age, disability, religion and national origin. DSS must also provide fair and equal access to all of its programs and services for people with disabilities; this includes both physical access to buildings and access to programs and services. To file a complaint of discrimination write: PMB0141-1, DSS Human Resource Manager, 500 East Capitol Ave., Pierre, SD 57501-5070 or call: (605) 773-6941. If you have a question regarding program services, please contact your nearest DSS office.

This project was supported through an Older Americans Act Title VII grant through the Administration on Aging, Department of Health and Human Services, Washington, D.C. 20201. 1,000 copies of this directory were printed by the South Dakota Department of Social Services at a cost of $4.07 per copy.
